Q&A

Rick Dunkley
Head Chef

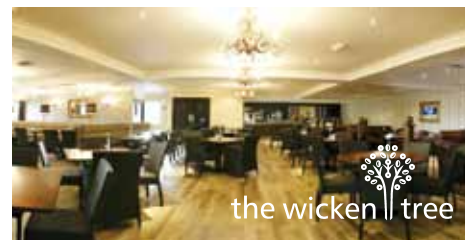

Whether it's breakfast, a glass of champagne, afternoon tea or one of our fabulous hot dishes, our Head Chef will provide a day out to remember.

Q. How long has the Wickentree Restaurant been open?

A. The Wickentree restaurant opened in May 2009 following its transformation from a café to an opulent restaurant.

Q. Looking at the menu, there are some wonderful dishes served here... but which is your favourite?

A. That would easily be the fish and chips. We triple cook the chips to perfection, fry an excellent piece of Cod in our secret batter mix and then serve with cracking mushy peas. I'm proud to say it's the best fish and chips in the UK.

Q. The Sunday Brunch is always a big success in the restaurant, why do you think it's so popular?

A. Sundays have become a huge success for us and plans are afoot to develop this further in the coming weeks. We have live entertainment every other Sunday and many customers love to join us for some real, home cooked dishes. Very soon we will be developing our Sunday Brunch menu further to offer some great comfort food all day, anything from Eggs Benedict to Roast Beef and Yorkshire pudding. If you've enjoyed a Saturday night out, you can even start Sunday with a Bloody Mary!

Q. Housing Units has a Restaurant and a Café. Why don't you just have one or the other?

A. We offer two dining choices as our customers asked us for this. Sometimes people would like an informal sandwich or coffee and a cake but other times prefer the smarter surroundings of the restaurant which offers more of a social occasion to perhaps meet up with family and friends. Believe it or not but many customers enjoying a day out have breakfast in one and lunch in the other!
